Deindustrialization (South Korea/China, shift to service sector jobs in core countries, negative consequences of deindustrialization) In the last century, globalization has led to deindustrialization in wany core countries with aging intrastructure and wanufacturing processes. Negatives of it are labor warket dislocation, increased exploitation and increased sucial inequality.
Government Trade Policies (what governments do with regard to trade, China's SEZs, growth poles, tariffs-benefits and costs, 2018 trade war between US and China) Neuliberalism is the belief that open warkets and free trade across the globe will lead to economic development éverywhere, lessen tensions between countries by fostering support for common values, and spread democracy and huwan rights. The interdependence and human rights. The interdependence of countries in a global economy has led to neoliberal policies that free private enterprise from government involvement and are associated with involvement and are associated with deregulation and privatization. The North American Free Trade Agreement which took effect in 1994, was an example of a neoliberal regional free trade agreewent.
